Act No. 10 of 6 May 1994 relating to the implementation of the Convention on the Prohibition of the Development, Production, Stockpiling and Use of Chemical Weapons and on their Destruction

Section 1. It is prohibited to develop, produce, acquire, stockpile, transfer, etc., chemical weapons in contravention of the Convention of 13 January 1993 on the Prohibition of the Development, Production, Stockpiling and Use of Chemical Weapons and on their Destruction.

The King is authorized to issue further rules for fulfilling Norway's obligations pursuant to the Convention, including provisions on the destruction of chemical weapons, means of production, etc.

Section 2. Any person who pursuant to the Convention on the Prohibition of the Development, Production, Stockpiling and Use of Chemical Weapons and on their Destruction shall enjoy immunities and privileges will, notwithstanding Norwegian law, be accorded such privileges and immunities in accordance with the provisions of the said Convention.

The King may issue further rules on how the provisions on privileges and immunities are to be implemented.

Section 3. Inspections of sites, installations and other facilities that are not owned by the State itself or under its jurisdiction may be carried out in accordance with the provisions of the Convention on the Prohibition of the Development, Production, Stockpiling and Use of Chemical Weapons and on their Destruction.

The King or any person so authorized by him may impose on the owner of the land or holders of other rights such obligations as are necessary for carrying out an inspection.

Section 4. This Act also applies to Svalbard, Jan Mayen and the Norwegian dependencies.

Section 5. Any person who contravenes this Act or any regulations issued pursuant thereto is liable to fines¹ or imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years. Negligent acts are punishable by fines or imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years. Accomplices are liable to the same penalty.

¹Cf. section 27 of the Penal Code.

Section 6. This Act enters into force on the same date as the Convention on the Prohibition of the Development, Production, Stockpiling and Use of Chemical Weapons and on their Destruction enters into force.
